1. Background

On 7 April 2003 the landlord applied to the rent officer for registration of a fair rent of £1245 per month for the above property.

The rent payable at the time of the application was £416.40 per month.

The rent was previously registered on 15 June 2001 with effect from the same date at £416.40 per month following a determination by a rent assessment committee.

On 19 June 2003 the rent officer registered a fair rent of £453.50 per month.

By a letter dated 1 July 2003 the landlord objected to the rent determined by the Rent Officer and the matter was referred to the Rent Assessment Committee.

2. Inspection

The Committee inspected the property on 7 November 2003 and found it to be in fair to poor condition externally as described more particularly in the Rent Officer's survey sheet which had been copied to the parties.

3. Evidence

The Committee received written representations from the landlord and the tenant and these were copied to the parties.

Neither party requested a hearing at which oral representations could be made.

4. The law

When determining a fair rent the Committee, in accordance with the Rent Act 1977, section 70, had regard to all the circumstances including the age, location and state of repair of the property. It also disregarded the effect of (a) any relevant tenant's improvements and (b) the effect of any disrepair or other defect attributable to the tenant or any predecessor in title under the regulated tenancy, on the rental value of the property.

In Spath Holme Ltd v Chairman of the Greater Manchester etc. Committee (1995) 28 HLR 107 and Curtis v London Rent Assessment Committee [1999] QB 92 the Court of Appeal emphasised

- (a) that ordinarily a fair rent is the market rent for the property discounted for 'scarcity' (i.e. that element, if any, of the market rent, that is attributable to there being a significant shortage of similar properties in the wider locality available for letting on similar terms - other than as to rent - to that of the regulated tenancy) and
- (b) that for the purposes of determining the market rent, assured tenancy (market) rents are usually appropriate comparables. (These rents may have to be adjusted where necessary to reflect any relevant differences between those comparables and the subject property).

5. Valuation

Thus in the first instance the Committee determined what rent the landlord could reasonably be expected to obtain for the property in the open market if it were let today in the condition that is considered usual for such an open market letting. It did this by having regard to the evidence supplied by the parties and the Committee's own general knowledge of market rent levels in the area of East Sheen. Having done so it concluded that such a likely market rent would be £800 per month.

However, the actual property is not in the condition considered usual for a modern letting at a market rent. Therefore it was first necessary to adjust that hypothetical rent of £800 per month to allow for the differences between the condition considered usual for such a letting and the condition of the actual property as observed by the Committee (disregarding the effect of any disrepair or other defect attributable to the tenant or any predecessor in title). The Committee considered that this required a deduction of £160 per month.

This leaves an adjusted market rent for the subject property of £640 per month.

The Committee found that there was substantial scarcity in the locality of Richmond & Kingston and adjoining South West Boroughs and therefore made a deduction of 15% from the market rent to reflect this element.

6. Decision

The uncapped fair rent initially determined by the Committee, for the purposes of section 70, was accordingly £544 per month.

However, by virtue of the Rent Acts (Maximum Fair Rent) Order 1999 the maximum fair rent that can be registered in the present case is the lower sum of £457 per month. (Details are provided on the back of the decision form).

Accordingly the sum of £457 per month will be registered as the fair rent with effect from 7 November 2003 being the date of the Committee's decision.
