1. Background

On the 17th July 2003 the tenant applied to the rent officer for registration of a fair rent of £100 per week for the above property.

The rent payable at the time of the application was £90 per week.

On the 25th September 2003 the rent officer registered a fair rent of £78 per week with effect from that date.

By a letter dated 2nd October 2003 the landlord objected to the rent determined by the Rent Officer and the matter was referred to the Rent Assessment Committee.

2. Inspection

The Committee inspected the property on the 12 December 2003 and found it to be in good condition as described more particularly in the Rent Officer's survey sheet which had been copied to the parties.

The tenants have undertaken some kitchen fitting improvements.

3. Evidence

The Committee received written representations from the landlord and the tenant and these were copied to the parties. Neither party requested a hearing at which oral representations could be made.

The law

When determining a fair rent the Committee, in accordance with the Rent Act 1977, section 70, had regard to all the circumstances including the age, location and state of repair of the property. It also disregarded the effect of (a) any relevant tenant's improvements and (b) the effect of any disrepair or other defect attributable to the tenant or any predecessor in title under the regulated tenancy, on the rental value of the property.

In Spath Holme Ltd v Chairman of the Greater Manchester etc. Committee (1995) 28 HLR 107 and Curtis v London Rent Assessment Committee [1999] QB 92 the Court of Appeal emphasised

- (a) that ordinarily a fair rent is the market rent for the property discounted for 'scarcity' (i.e. that element, if any, of the market rent, that is attributable to there being a significant shortage of similar properties in the wider locality available for letting on similar terms - other than as to rent - to that of the regulated tenancy) and
- (b) that for the purposes of determining the market rent, assured tenancy (market) rents are usually appropriate comparables. (These rents may have to be adjusted where necessary to reflect any relevant differences between those comparables and the subject property).

4. Valuation

Thus in the first instance the Committee determined what rent the landlord could reasonably be expected to obtain for the property in the open market if it were let today in the condition that is considered usual for such an open market letting. It did this by having regard to the evidence supplied by the parties and the Committee's own general knowledge of market rent levels in the coastal area of south east Kent. Having done so it concluded that such a likely market rent would be £477 per month.

To allow for the tenant's obligations and improvements it was necessary to make a further deduction of £50 per month.

The Committee did not consider that there was any substantial scarcity element and accordingly no further deduction was made for scarcity .

This leaves an equivalent net market rent for the subject property of £99 per week.

6. Decision

The fair rent initially determined by the Committee, for the purposes of section 70, was accordingly £99 per week.

The fair rent to be registered is not limited by the Rent Acts (Maximum Fair Rent) Order 1999 because there was not an existing registered fair rent at the time of the application.

Accordingly the sum of £99 per week will be registered as the fair rent with effect from the 12th December 2003 being the date of the Committee's decision.
