1. Background

On 6 May 2005 the landlord applied to the rent officer for registration of a fair rent of £360.00 per month for the above property.

The rent payable at the time of the application was £300.00 per month.

The rent was previously registered on 8 July 2003 with effect from 6 August 2003 at £300.00 per month following a determination by the rent officer.

On 10 June 2005 the rent officer registered a fair rent of £310.00 per month with effect from 6 August 2005.

By a letter dated 26 July 2005 the landlord objected to the rent determined by the Rent Officer and the matter was referred to the Rent Assessment Committee.

2. Inspection

The Committee inspected the property on 8 September 2005 and found it to be in fair/poor condition as described more particularly in the Rent Officer's survey sheet which had been copied to the parties.

The following tenant's improvements had been made to the property.

1. Electric shower in bathroom
2. Electric heater and light in bathroom
3. 1 additional unit in kitchen

3. Evidence

The Committee received written representations from the tenant and these were copied to the parties. No written representations were received from the landlord.

A hearing was held on 8 September 2005 in Nottingham at which oral representations were made by the tenant. The landlord was not present or represented.

4. The law

When determining a fair rent the Committee, in accordance with the Rent Act 1977, section 70, had regard to all the circumstances including the age, location and state of repair of the property. It also disregarded the effect of (a) any relevant tenant's improvements and (b) the effect of any disrepair or other defect attributable to the tenant or any predecessor in title under the regulated tenancy, on the rental value of the property.

In Spath Holme Ltd v Chairman of the Greater Manchester etc. Committee (1995) 28 HLR 107 and Curtis v London Rent Assessment Committee [1999] QB 92 the Court of Appeal emphasised

- (a) that ordinarily a fair rent is the market rent for the property discounted for 'scarcity' (i.e. that element, if any, of the market rent, that is attributable to there being a significant shortage of similar properties in the wider locality available for letting on similar terms - other than as to rent - to that of the regulated tenancy) and
- (b) that for the purposes of determining the market rent, assured tenancy (market) rents are usually appropriate comparables. (These rents may have to be adjusted where necessary to reflect any relevant differences between those comparables and the subject property).

5. Valuation

Thus in the first instance the Committee determined what rent the landlord could reasonably be expected to obtain for the property in the open market if it were let today in the condition that is considered usual for such an open market letting. It did this by having regard to the Committee's own general knowledge of market rent levels in the area of Nottingham. Having done so, it concluded that such a likely market rent would be £450.00 per month.

However, the actual property is not in the condition considered usual for a modern letting at a market rent. Therefore it was first necessary to adjust that hypothetical rent of £450.00 per month to allow for the differences between the condition considered usual for such a letting and the condition of the actual property as observed by the Committee (disregarding the effect of any disrepair or other defect attributable to the tenant or any predecessor in title). The Committee considered that this required a deduction of £95.00 per month.

Furthermore, to allow for the tenant's improvements (listed above) it was necessary to make a further deduction of £2.00 per month.

The Committee found that there was substantial scarcity in the locality and therefore deducted a further sum of £35.00 from the market rent to reflect this element.

This leaves a fair rent for the subject property of £318.00 per month.

6. Decision

The fair rent initially determined by the Committee, for the purposes of section 70, was accordingly £318.00 per month.

The section 70 fair rent determined by the Committee is below the maximum fair rent permitted by the Rent Acts (Maximum Fair Rent) Order 1999 and accordingly that rent limit has no effect. Details are provided on the back of the decision form.

Accordingly the sum of £318.00 per month will be registered as the fair rent with effect from 8 September 2005 being the date of the Committee's decision.
