

Preliminary      Preliminary

section 27A of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985. in respect of their

the person to whom ground rent and such service charges as are due

4. The particular subject matter of the dispute before the Tribunal is a the other side of dispute is in respect of the

with the written representations, which confirms that he was registered between the parties were further strained by the building work which thereafter is that the "shed" transpired to be a one storey of the man and overlooking the

...with concrete ceilings which they

...with the Dependent paid by the Respondent. In the written representations submitted on 23 July 2002 are irrecoverable from the Applicants and total claim for £6650. The basis

13 So far as the major works are concerned, the major thrust of the Applicants' argument was that they had incomplete and insufficient 2004 Union which to make any real judgement of comparisons as to

of the works had already been

_____

---

_____

_____

100

Abstract

the document does not state the date upon which the relevant period

the document does not state the date upon which the relevant period

The document does not further state whether the Tenants to provide

Conclusion

It is concluded that the Defendant is liable before it that the sums claimed